

Lou is a man who can run a machine
 Or shake up the crew with his wrath,
 But wanders home meekly, when evening arrives,
 To struggle with seventh grade math.

Ode to Ed

As children of the baker, bake the most delicious bread,
 And the sons of Casanova fill the most exclusive beds,
 As the children of the cop possess the flattest feet,
 And the daughter of the floosie has a wiggle to her seat;
 So do all the problems of Witters' local show,
 Find their way to Ed, the man most in the know.
 He plied the bums with hooch, trying to find a way to show all those deserters why they really ought to stay,
 But despite his gallant efforts, they left there just the same,
 To play in another yard, under the other fellows name.
 It isn't their leaving that's so bad, Ed was heard to muse;
 It's just that I wasted all that perfectly good booze.

We understand that Bob MacRae's clients are so lonely they are calling each other----- they might as well, they can never reach their broker.

CONGRATULATIONS HOMER

We can all take pride in Homer Bateman's outstanding results in soliciting advertisement for this year's NSTA Yearbook. His great efforts placed us third in the Nation behind New York and Chicago only. A total of $3,197.05 was paid for 25 ads of which our affiliate retains $130.25. Our sincere thanks for a job well done.

We want to congratulate Sid Sanders on being elected to the office of First Vice President of the National Security Traders Association. We think this is especially fitting now that he is about to become a Trader again.

We are proud to announce a 9,85637015487061% stock dividend.

Down at Walston, the phone rings so much
That Neil asked Monty for some help.

Now when you call, you'd better have it straight,
Or Kennecott will come out Dodge Phelps.

Someone should tell Rod Rich & Al Schmidt that the vice squad has jurisdiction over that big sail boat of Schmidt's anywhere inside the three mile limit. The middle of Lake Union isn't far enough out to legalize what you boys have been doing.

A degree of notariety was achieved by one of our past Seminarists who attended the Wharton School of Finance all hopeful for Investment Bankers this past year. We are to match his already monumental ego, a mental capacity.

I am tired of being Baker's secretary-----
